1. Students will be knowledgeable of basic terms, concepts, principles of Fire Protections.

Learning outcomes are assessed at the course level by individual faculty me

2. Demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills in fire safety for business and industry	Communication skills and working effectively in teams are assessed at the course level that may include on or more of the following: Class project Capstone Course Selected assignments Oral Communication Rubrics	f students achieved a final course grade of 70% or better in Fire & Safety ISS for Business and Industry, 89% of the students achiev9 reW*n0502
	Courses Assessed: Fire &Safety ISS for Business and Industry

Measurement Methods: Oral Presentation Rubric (scale 1-5) Exams, quizzes Expectation: Satisfactory rating	3. Continue to collect and monitor data and re-evaluate data in 2022-2023 academic year.
of 3.5 in all categories tested.

Fire Protection full time faculty. The Fire Protection faculty recommended 3 actions: Identify, remediate and continue to evaluate the